

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

The Health and Safety at Work etc., Act 1974 imposes a statutory duty on employers to ensure, in so far as is reasonably practicable, the health and safety of their employees whilst at work. This duty also extends to others who may be affected by that work.

Employees also have a statutory duty to take care of themselves and others that may be affected by their acts or omissions.

To enable these duties to be carried out, it is our intent to ensure that responsibilities for health and safety matters are effectively assigned, accepted and fulfilled at all levels within our organisational structure.

1. We will, so far as is reasonably practicable, ensure that:

- adequate resources are provided to ensure that proper provision can be made for health and safety
- risk assessments are carried out where appropriate and periodically reviewed
- systems of work are provided when required and maintained that are safe and without risks to health
- arrangements for the use, handling, storage, and transport of articles and substances for use at work are safe and without risks to health
- all employees are provided with such information, instruction, training and supervision as is necessary to secure their safety and health at work and the safety of others who may be affected by their actions
- where appropriate, health assessment will be provided for employees
- the provision and maintenance of all equipment is safe and without risk to health.
- the working environment of all employees is safe and without risk to health and that adequate provision is made with regard to the facilities and arrangements for their welfare at work
- the place of work is safe and that there is safe access to and egress from the work place
- monitoring activities are undertaken to maintain agreed standards

2. It is the duty of all employees at work:

- to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work and co-operate with us in fulfilling our statutory duties
- not to interfere with or misuse anything provided in the interest of health and safety

3. General

- this Health and Safety Policy Statement and accompanying Procedures will be reviewed at least annually, amended and updated as and when necessary. Communication of any such changes will be made to all employees

- there are established and maintained effective procedures for consultation and communication between all levels of management and employees on all matters relating to health, safety and welfare
- further information is available from the Health and Safety Manual, held by the Health and Safety Co-ordinator.

Signed:-